Subscribing to Real-time Data

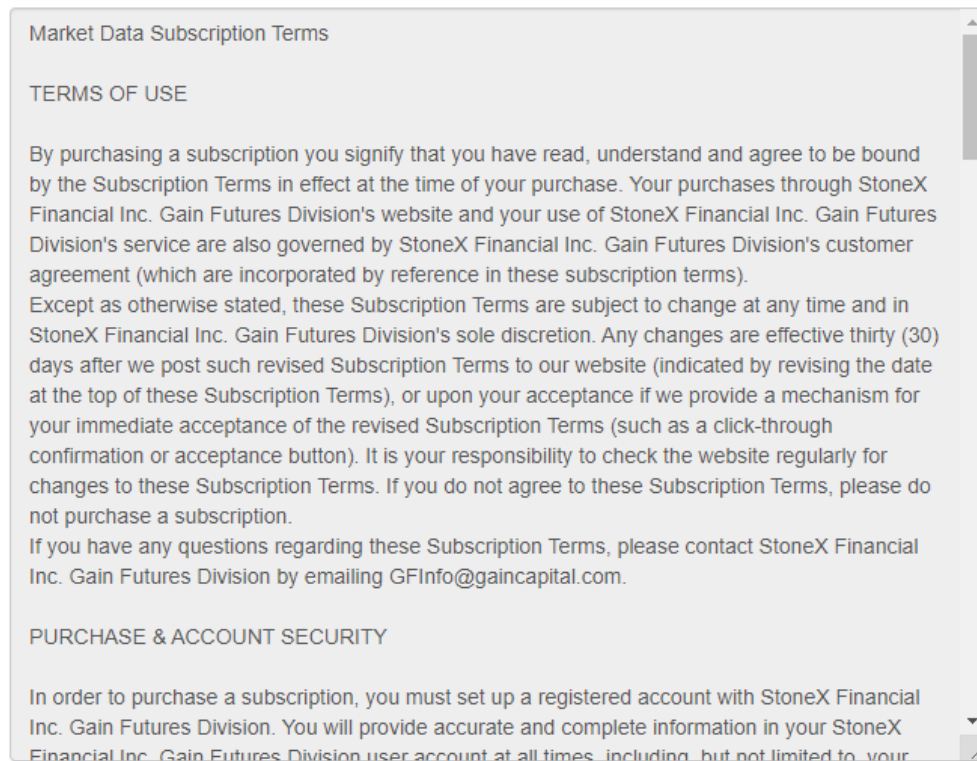

Click the blue 'CME Market Data' button data to subscribe to the real-time data that you will need to trade the E-mini S&P 500 market. Note: There is a $2.20/month exchange fee to receive live CME data.

Review and accept the Market Data Subscription Terms and then certify that you are a Non-Professional (assuming that you meet the criteria to be considered a non-professional).

Market Data Subscription Terms

The screenshot shows a scrollable dialog box titled "Market Data Subscription Terms". The content is organized into sections: "TERMS OF USE" and "PURCHASE & ACCOUNT SECURITY". The "TERMS OF USE" section contains several paragraphs of text explaining the subscription agreement, including the fact that the terms are subject to change and that the user is responsible for checking for updates. The "PURCHASE & ACCOUNT SECURITY" section begins with the requirement to set up a registered account with StoneX Financial Inc. Gain Futures Division.
